CLASS NO. 19—DISCRETIONARY.

In this class may be found the various articles on exhibition not enumerated in our Premium List.

NOTE 1. Judges are requested to call the attention of the Discretionary Committee to all articles entered in the several classes which are worthy of a premium, but in no case to make an award of premium to an article not enumerated on the premium list of the Society.

NOTE 2.—It shall be the duty of the Discretionary Committee to examine all such articles as shall be recommended to them by the judges on the various classes, together with those to which their attention may be directed by the numbered cards (19) on each, and also any article they may deem worthy of premium, which is not specified in our List. But in no case are they to make an award in any class unless their attention has first been called to it by the judges of said class.

All Discretionary Premiums to be referred to the Board of Managers.

Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Fair.

DIRECTION TO COMPETITORS.

1. Competitors at the Fair must become members of the Society, and have certificates of membership; which must be shown to the Secretary before any entries can be made. They must also be citizens of the county, and owners of the property exhibited for premiums.

2. Numbered cards must be attached to all articles, stock, &c., for exhibition, which will be furnished by the Secretary—being an exact copy of his entry—but the names of the owners strictly excluded.

3. All animals and articles must be on the ground before 10 o'clock A. M., on Thursday 1st, (second day of the Fair) that they may be arranged in readiness for examination by the Judges immediately thereafter. Articles may subsequently be offered for exhibition, but not for a premium.

4. The same article cannot be used to take a premium in two different classes.

5. Exhibitors are not to make themselves known to the judges, unless it becomes necessary to the examination of stock, machinery, &c. Judges must not be interfered with in any manner, by any person.

6. Competitors for field crop premiums must present certified statements of disinterested persons.

7. No animal or article entered for premium can be removed until the close of the Fair, except by special permission. All stock, &c., will be subject to the order and direction of the Board of Managers.

8. Hay or straw for stock will be furnished free of charge, and grain at cost price, and an abundance of water will be on the grounds for all purposes.

9. No premiums will be paid until thirty (30) days after the Fair, and all premiums sent for will be paid only on a written order to the Treasurer of the Society, (Jos. C. Wilson) to be retained by him as a voucher for the same. In all cases premiums to be receipted for to the Treasurer.

10. A Committee will direct as to the location of any article which may be placed on exhibition.

11. The Board of Managers will spare no pains to accommodate competitors in every class; every precaution will be taken for the safety of all articles on exhibition, but will in no case, be liable for any loss or damage that may occur.

Instructions to Judges.

1. All the judges are required to report themselves at the stand, at 9 o'clock, on Thursday, otherwise vacancies will be immediately filled up by the Board. They will make full and detailed reports, and return them to the Secretary before 2 o'clock, on Friday. The judges must confine themselves to the articles in their several Department, as set forth in the Premium List. When a worthy object is presented, they are to refer it to the Discretionary Committee.

2. Judges will not award first premiums upon indifferent objects with little or no competition. But may award premiums of a lower grade, or no premium, as they shall deem proper.

3. Judges will not permit exhibitors to make themselves known, unless it becomes necessary to the examination of stock, &c.

4. Judges are requested to make a note of every article that comes before them, as the Board wish to make a full report, with the name of the owner attached, but will not award premiums upon articles or animals not enumerated in their own particular class, but such as they think worthy they will recommend to the attention of the Discretionary Committee.

5. Judges will in no case award a premium to any article the card of which is marked second day entry.

6. Judges will permit no person to be present at their examinations, except as above directed.

7. No person will be permitted to serve as a Judge, if he or she may be competing for a premium in the same Class, or in any way interested.

General Rules.

1. Certificates of Life Membership ($10 each) admit all members of the family to all the privileges of the Society, for the Fair, forever.

2. Certificates of annual membership ($1) give all the privileges for the year, including succeeding election, and admit to the Fair Ground during the Exhibition the heads of a family and children residing at home, except males over 21 years of age. Single tickets (25 cents each) will be good for one admission only.

3. All articles in the Manufacturing or Mechanical Department must be made in the county, and within a period of one year previous to the present Fair.

4. The Board of Managers may award premiums on articles of special merit from other counties or States.

5. Any person who may bring intoxicating liquors on the Fair Grounds, either to drink himself, or to give away, shall be expelled from the enclosure, and not be permitted to enter again.

6 Each horse or colt brought upon the Ground, (except those engaged in hauling articles to the Fair, which shall not remain,) will be taxed 15 cents each—a pair of horses (one owner) in harness or otherwise, 25 cents.

7. All carriages, buggies, &c., used in the ring, must be driven outside of the grounds immediately after training.

8. All carriages, wagons, or vehicles of of any kind, coming within the enclosure (except the provisions in rule 6th and 7th,) must be entered for competition, and have a numbered card placed thereon. None others can be admitted.

9. All persons having horses to exhibit or train in the ring are required to show their Certificate of Membership, both at the Stock gate and entrance to the ring.

A. The Board of Managers which includes the officers, will be present on the grounds, and will be pleased to give any information to competitors or others who may desire it.

The Managers will have an Auctioneer to sell any animals or articles exhibited, which the owner may wish to dispose of, on the third day.

B. The Secretary of the Society, (J. R. Harrah,) will be ready to receive entries for, for two weeks previous to the Fair, and would earnestly request all who can, to make application before the Fair, as it will facilitate arrangements that may be made for their accommodation.

In presenting the foregoing List of Premiums, the Board beg leave to call attention to the fact that it has undergone a thorough revision and correction, and they would invite an attentive and careful perusal, feeling that in variety and extent (if not in aggregate amount of premiums offered) it is not surpassed by that of any other County Society in our State. Taking these facts into consideration, the Board would cordially invite all to compete, hoping that we may have an exhibition which will prove alike creditable to our Association, and to the Agricultural interests of our county.

J. R. HARRAH, Secretary.

THE following extract from a New Orleans letter to a Boston gentleman is full of significance. If there are really any such anomalies as Seymour "Boys in Blue," this deserves their careful consideration: "How is Seymour and Blair stock in Boston? It is all the rage here, as every 'reb' goes for the ticket. The city is full of Blair Guards, Seymour Knights, etc. But grant will win. If not, it will be all over with 'Yanks' down south—we shall have 'to git, right smart.' It is a common sight to see the rebel flag in Seymour and Blair torchlight processions, and we often hear cheers for Jeff. Davis, Lee and Seymour and Blair, all alike. But let a man cheer for Grant in a crowd, and he will have a slim chance of getting out of it—he'll be shot or stabbed, if they can get behind him. Every man in the north that votes for S. & B. aids and supports the rebellion that is sure to come if they are elected. Every such northeren doughface ought to live here a while and know his rebel friends. They look upon a northern Democrat as a coward, and he fares no better here than an honest Republican.'

MR. SPURGEON very properly makes fun of his Baptist brethern, who keep out of politics on the ground that Christians "are not of this world." He says: "You might as well, being sheep of the Lord, decline to eat a mutton chop, on the plea that it would be cannibalism!"

The Hartford Post says that an Illinois correspondent writes to Brick Pomeroy's paper that "the woods are full of Democrats this year." It was so during the draft in 1863—"the woods" and Canada were "full of Democrats."

A PARTY of Hunters from Harrisonburg, Va., last week killed sixty-five rattlesnakes on Hoover's mountain in one day, and that's not a good day for snakes.

MASS MEETING!

REPUBLICANS TURN OUT!

Give Another Day to Your Country!

The Republicans of Beaver county are earnestly requested to attend a Mass Meeting in Beaver, on WEDNESDAY, Sept. 23d, 1868.

The following distinguished persons will be present to address the people on the issues of the hour, viz:

GOV. GEARY, EX-GOV. CURTIN, HON. G. A. GROW, HON. A. K. M'CLURE, AND HON. THOMAS MARSHALL.

Other prominent gentlemen from a distance have also been invited to be with us on the occasion. Come one, come all!!

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS will be held at the following places at the times named, viz:

At New Brighton, Sept. 11, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

At Darlington, Sept. 16th, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

At Fairview, Sept. 17th, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

At New Sheffield, Sept. 18th, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

At McCagues School House, Independence tp., Oct. 9th, 1868, at 7½ o'clock, P. M.

Suitable speakers will address the people at the above places, who will be announced hereafter. Other meetings will be hereafter announced at other points in the county.

By order of the Co. Executive Com.
H. HICE, Chairman.

THE Convention at New Brighton at 1 P. M. on the 11th should be well attended by the Republicans of the surrounding boroughs and townships. A number of eloquent speakers of Western Pennsylvania, among others Hon. John Allison recently of this county, are announced to address it, and preparations have been made by the citizens for a demonstration which will be creditable to the town and county. The Democracy have been straining themselves at raising large meetings in that locality. Turn out and let us see what Republicans can do.

THE Democrats are "roping in" all the Rebel officials to help them put down Grant. Their latest ally in this malicious work of detraction is Robert Ould, Confederate Agent of exchange of Prisoners.

Ould seceded from Washington and joined the Rebellion from love of it. He served it till it expired. The people saved the country in spite of his opposition then. They will preserve it, in spite of his malignity, now.

VERMONT held her State election on last Tuesday. The result surprises us. In consequence of the overwhelming Republican strength in that State we were led to believe that our friends were apathetic, and would make but little or no effort to get out our full vote, thinking that their ticket would be elected at any rate. In this we were mistaken.—Apathy did not exist among them. They worked as honest, thinking men should work and the result shows the heaviest vote cast in that State since 1840, and a gain of 10,000 Republican votes on the Republican poll of last year. Our majority is about 28,000. The Democracy did their best, but it all would not do. They went under clear and clean. The loyal and patriotic people of Vermont were alive to the issues of the hour, and gave the cops the best thrashing they have had for a great many years. All honor to the sturdy Republicans of Vermont. Let us imitate their example in this State in October.

THE Republican meetings throughout the county have been largely attended during this present campaign, and we trust our friends will outdo themselves upon the occasion of the Convention of the 23rd inst. No pains should be spared to make it the grandest political demonstration ever witnessed in the county. In the Grant Clubs and Wide Awake organizations we have the material, all that is needed is the will and energy to work it up.

In every township the Republicans should move in the matter at an early day. The Grant clubs and each of the Wide-Awake companies should appoint committees at once to make the necessary arrangements. In townships where no clubs are organized township meetings should be held in reference to this special subject. Committees upon conveyances—for general arrangements—for raising money, and of ladies upon decorations should be selected and set at work and as nearly as possible every Republican voter and his family should be brought out. Let every one come. It will do you good however settled in your convictions you may be to look in the faces of the thousands of friends you will meet and listen to the eloquent orators who will be there.

The Lee-Rosecrans Correspondence.

Arnold was a patriotic officer in the early days of the Revolution, but his jealousy of Washington, and English gold, and a Major General's commission in his Britannic Majesty's service, were too much for his patriotism. W. S. Rosecrans seems constituted of much the same material, and ambitious to fill the page in the history of the present war, illustrated by Arnold in that of the struggle for independence. Esteemed by the loyal people as a resolute, though rather unlucky fighter, since the suspension of active hostilities he has acted with the Republican party. Pique with Grant who supplanted him in his command, and snatched victory from his defeat, chilled his patriotic ardor and he was just in the mood to fall when Johnson recently tempted him with a diplomatic appointment. If there is now a more pronounced rebel in the country than W. S. Rosecrans, we don't understand the English language.

For Rosecrans has indulged in a political correspondence. With "his heart in his hand" and the mission to Mexico in his pocket, he went to White Sulpher Springs, Va., where rebel generals most do congregate, a self constituted committee to ask of them the terms upon which they would become good citizens, obey the laws, disband the Ku Klux and leave off murdering Union men and negros. His journey was announced through the press, and we have its results through the same channel in shape of two letters—Rosecrans to Robert E. Lee, late commander-in-chief of the rebel army, and Lee, Beauregard, Letcher, and others to Rosecrans.

The rebel reply was not out of character. The abolition of slavery being a fact accomplished they acquiesce in it. Being unable to get out of the Union they are willing for the present to remain in it. And in the mean time they will abandon all their naughty practices if the U. S. Government will desert and disfranchise the Union men of the South, turn over the State Governments to the rebels and admit Lee, Beauregard, Letcher & Co., to places, civil and military, free of the disabilities consequent upon their treason. Concerning their intentions if these concessions are not made the document is ominously silent. Amongst the signatures we notice that of Col. Stockdale, a former comrade of Crawford in the ranks of the Greene county Democracy, and late an officer of the rebel army.

The letter of Rosecrans, however, is one which must bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every Union soldier, the more that he professes to speak in behalf of the entire Union army. He approaches these paroled prisoners as an inferior to superiors, and the tone of the epistle is cringing and sycophantic throughout. Their characters are described as "brave, energetic, self-sacrificing." He expresses the utmost confidence in their attachment to the institutions they for five years sought to destroy. He tells Lee that he considers him a "pure patriot," and knows he is "a representative man in reverence and regard for the Union, the Constitution and the welfare of the country" And holding him and the "good men" whom he will consult in such esteem, he asks their intentions and is ready to receive their behests. We presume that in his judgment it was in the spirit of pure patriotism that Lee hurled the battalions of Longstreet and Bragg upon his own reeling, bleeding columns at Stone river and Chickamauga, that it was with a reverent regard for the Union, the Constitution and the welfare of the country, that Lee, by shell, and ball, and bayonet, famine and disease, murdered hundreds of thousands of the country's defenders, swore allegiance to a rival constitution, and struggled to sunder the bonds of the Union.

Alas poor Rosey! Drowned are the memories of Murfreesboro and Chickamauga, faded the laurels of Iuka and Corinth. History at last will recite him the bought thrall of the enemies he was trained and sworn to combat,

> "The light all flown
> Which once he wore,
> The glory from his gray hairs gone
> Forevermore."

If the correspondence originated upon Rosecrans' own motion, we might regard the entire with contempt and pity. But it is important and alarming, as indicating the sympathies and purposes of the party whose puppet he was. No one doubts but that Mr. Rosecrans was sent upon his mission with explicit instructions, that the rebel leaders were convened to meet him, and that the entire correspondence was plotted before he set out, and is but a part of the machinery relied upon to elect Seymour and Blair. It is the Democracy, that, heart in hand, and mouth in the dust, crawls to the Sulphur Springs to kiss the feet of the heroes of the Confederacy. It is the Democratic party which confides in the "pure patriotism" of Lee, and regards him as "a representative man in reverence and regard for the Union, the Constitution and the welfare of the country." And it is the Democratic party which, through Lee, demands the overthrow of the existing Governments and their surrender into rebel hands, with a removal of all disabilities consequent upon the rebellion, and withdrawal of the military power, as the price of peace. The correspondence supplements Blairs' letter, and proves that he is in accord with the rebels, and they with his party, and that Seymour's election means revolution and bloodshed or a surrender of the fruits of the war. Its publication was one of the many mistakes of the Democracy in the present campaign. It will nerve and unite the Union men, open the eyes of honest Democrats to the purposes of their leaders, and add everywhere to the vote for Grant and Colfax who don't consult traitors and under whose just administration Union men will be protected, the laws enforced, and rebel taught their places.

Has the Public Debt Been Reduced?

The Seymour orators say—no. The figures say yes. They show that from the 1st of August, 1865, to the 1st of August, 1868, the debt has been reduced from $2,757,803,686 91 to $2,523,534,480 67, a reduction of more than seventy millions per year. Recollect too, that while this reduction has been going on the taxes have been vastly reduced, some of them being altogether abolished.

THE Republicans of Wilmington, Delaware, deserve great credit for a victory over their opponents at a municipal election held in that city on Tuesday of last week. In a very animated contest they succeeded in electing Mr. Valentine, their candidate for Mayor, by a majority of one hundred greater than he received for the same position last year.

LET US HAVE PEACE.

VICTORY IN VERMONT.

GREAT REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH.

What the Green Mountain Boys Think of Grant & Colfax.

28,000 Majority.

Republican Gain of Ten Thousand.

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching.

The Senate Unanimously Republican—The House Nearly So.

"I Propose to Move Immediately upon Your Works."

In the world to-day no prouder name
Is borne on any breeze,
And with Grant to steer the ship of State
Our flag shall rule the seas;
No "Dominion" shall be North of us,
And South of us no foe—
Our Stars and Stripes in the Canadas,
And likewise Mexico!
For with President Ulysses
Will be few who care to fight—
May he rule the country he has saved
And God defend the right!

So boys! a final bumper,
While we all in chorus chant—
"For next President we nominate
Our own Ulysses Grant!"
And if asked what State he hails from,
This our sole reply shall be,
From near Appomattox Court House,
With its famous apple-tree!"
For t'was there to our Ulyses
That Lee gave up the fight—
Now, boys, "To Grant for President
And God defend the right!"

The Republican victory in Vermont is a regular Waterloo affair. Our friends have gained 10,000 votes since the last election, and have ousted the only copperhead Senator in their Legislature. The House is nearly unanimously Republican. All honor to Vermont. Let Pennsylvania imitate her example in October.

Vermont.

We have glorious news from Vermont. The Republicans have carried the State by a majority of 27,000—to put it at the very lowest figure—being a gain of 7,000 over last year. The Senate is unanimously Republican, and the House nearly so. In almost every town we have Republican gains. The vote seems to be the largest ever polled, and the contest was animated. The Democrats made a desperate struggle. They were met in the proper spirit, and the result is a decisive victory.

The lesson of the triumph is this: WORK WILL BRING VICTORY. In Vermont, as in all loyal States, the Republican party, and the Republican policy are indorsed by every calm and thoughtful citizen. The issue was never plainer. Upon one side we have the enemies of the country, on the other its friends. It is the issue of Sumpter over again. Then Beauregard menaced the national existence, just as Blair now threatens the national peace.—All that Lincoln wanted was peace—all that Grant wants is peace. Now, as then, the country responds, "Amen."

If our friends anywhere would have been justified in self-confidence and apathy, it was certainly in Vermont. Success was assured. All the offices were in the hands of our friends. No matter how tame the canvass, the fruits of victory were secure. But Vermont felt that she had a moral triumph to win. She was the first of the New England States to pronounce upon the nomination of Grant and Colfax—to answer the menaces of Blair—to give an opinion of the contemplated pro-Slavery revolution. The influences that increased our vote in Vermont would prevail in other States, and so the Republicans labored for victory at home, and for the comfort and encouragement of friends in distant and doubtful States. They worked hard—even with the disadvantage of necessary farm work and very warm weather. Every vote was brought out. The party went into action with full ranks, and the victory surpasses our highest hopes.

Maine comes next. We dare not hope for a victory so decided, but our friends are in earnest, and every town rings with the busy note of preparation. Nine more weeks of work remains before the Presidential election. Let it be genuine, thorough, continued Vermont work, and we shall have a Vermont triumph. Friends, give every hour to this duty. Organize every township. Get out every vote. Work—day and night—to poll our full strength and to prevent fraud among the Democrats. We have the victory in our hands—but we can only gain it by working everywhere as heartily as our friends have worked in the noble Green Mountain State.—N. Y. Tribune.

IN a recent speech Wade Hampton said:

"The old Government was honored at home and respected abroad; taxation was light, and plenty blessed the land."

If this were so, then why did Hampton wage a furious, bloody and protracted war to destroy "the old Government?" Those whom he and his associates now traduce gave half a million of lives and five thousand millions of money to preserve that Government. These Southern gentlemen should know that the people of the North estimate at its real value their present solicitude for the honor of "the old Government." The advice they are so lavishly tendering in the pending campaign is not relished by loyal men of either party. If they really desire the election of Seymour, prudence if not modesty would bow them to the rear. They don't look well in front.

THE stump speeches that will tell the most hereabouts, are the stump legs and arms of Union soldiers that we meet on every hand; the number of which does not yet appear to satisfy Blair and his rebel advisers who are clamoring for another war.

"BRICK" POMEROY in his last Democrat has this drive at Marble of the World:

What would be thought of a man—a double handed man—who wrote with his right hand, "I'd rather sit with the devil in hell, than join the Democratic party;" while with his left hand he signed a contract by which his paper and his "principles" were sold to certain "leaders" of that very party? We know the man who did just that very dirty thing."

THE Republicans of Franklin and Marion townships had a glorious rally at Hickerwell Camp ground on Saturday last. The meeting was presided over by Robt. Francis, Esq., assisted by Edward Coleman, John Strick, Jos. Moberly and Samuel Thomas, as Vice Presidents, and W. S. Cloo and J. S. Marshall as Secretaries. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Magaw, Eberhart and M. Weyand.—Whilst the speaking was progressing a very large delegation, composed of citizens, the brass band, the glee club, and nearly 100 "Boys in Blue" from New Brighton arrived and took their places on the ground. The band played a number of enlivening airs—Prof. Critchlow and his Glee Club sang a number of heart-inspiring songs, as only they can sing. The enthusiasm became unbounded. Gray headed men and ladies joined in the chorus with a will, until the surrounding woods were made vocal with patriotic sound. If Franklin and Marion do not give a good account of themselves in October we shall acknowledge ourselves greatly mistaken.

"WHEN a ticket is presented to me selected by the leaders of the rebellion, and supported by every man in the South who bore arms against the country, and by every man in the North whose sympathies were with them," said a War Democrat a few days since, "it is time that I should look for other company. I rejoiced when the rebellion went down under the blows of Grant," he continued, "and do not intend by my vote now to undo what was then accomplished. As a consistent and true man, I am bound to give him my vote for President." This brief speech expresses the sentiments of thousands who, as ex-Senator Carlisle says, looked to the New York Convention for a ticket that would command their support.

THE New York Times has a letter from Indiana, giving at full length an account of the political canvass of the State. The writer says that "the wholesale defection of all the leading Conservative Republicans, who, two years ago, supported the Democratic ticket, created last week a perfect panic among the Democratic leaders of Indiana." The Democrats expected these men to remain with them. They are also deserted by several old-line Democrats, who cannot support Seymour-Blair and revolution. The result is to place the State beyond doubt.

Rebel Pacification.

The copper presses take exception to our "tone" towards "the people of the south." We are reminded by more than one copper sheet that these people are now "fellow-citizens and brothers," and that it is not either generous or politic to speak of them as rebels and traitors, and to denounce them as constantly plotting evil. The rebuke might come with some force and really be entitled to some consideration if it were founded in truth. We claim that there is absolute political folly and danger in entrusting the control of the national government and the management of all its complicated affairs to men who have been for eight years fighting as hard as they could to destroy the government, and who caused whatever complications there are; and this though their repentance were perfect. We further claim that their affiliation with northern Democrats, and their zeal to destroy the party by whom their madness was defeated, is an evidence that their sentiments have not yet fully reached a reliable point. We further claim that their language at the New York Convention was incendiary; and still further that the general tone of speech by all prominent men in all parts of the south is marked by a bitter and revengeful spirit; that it is deadly towards the Union party and bitterly inimical to the faithful administration of the country. And therefore we add, that the rebels need further political supervision, and that the party with which they are wedded almost to a man must be kept out of power.

Here is the late language of men who are fairly and confessedly representatives of the southern sentiment. These are men who are and long have been influential there, and who may be properly selected as the authors and organs of the feeling referred to. We ask if this language indicates such a pacification as will justify patriots or sensible people of any kind, politicians or business men, in consenting that power should be placed in their control?

The Memphis Appeal says:

"Go on boys; swear to murder northern Huns. Arm yourselves and organize, and be ready to respond promptly when called on, and fight bravely even if you get killed."

Gen. Wade Hampton says:

"I yield to none in devotion to that 'lost cause' for which we fought. Never shall I admit that the cause itself failed, and that the principles which gave it life were wrong. Never shall I brand the men who upheld it so nobly as 'rebels' or 'traitors.' Should this dear old mother of ours call her sons together to defend her altars, if life and volition are left to me, none will respond more cheerfully and promptly than myself."

Governor Wise, of Virginia, says:

"Secession is not dead; it is more alive to-day than ever. I support Blair because he promises a revolution."

The Pirate Semmes says:

"I have been a Democrat all my life—before the war during the war, and since the war—and fought the war on principles of Democracy, and as such I drew my sword against the old flag. * * * "The grand old Democratic party has risen from the long slumber in which it has indulged, and now gives signs of new life and vitality, and I have come here to-night from the country to ratify and rejoice with you in the nomination of Seymour and Blair."

General Albert Pike says:

"Young men, it is for you to bring back to the country those golden days. The south is our land; the north is a foreign and a hostile realm. Stand at the alter of your country. Swear eternal hatred of the oppressors. Swear that the day shall come when the Susquehanna and Ohio shall be like rivers of fire, as they are now rivers of blood, between your native land and that of the northern Huns, which no man shall attempt to cross, and live."

John Forsythe, of Alabama, says:

"Denounce the loyal league upon every occasion; organize a Ku-Klux Klan whenever they organize a league, meet friendship and peace as Christians should; meet midnight leagues and enemies as manhood dares."

Ramsay, of Georgia, says:

"We have aroused in our might once more, under the leadership of Seymour and Blair, to raise the Constitution from the dust. Georgia has passed through a fiery ordeal. Some of her children, during the war she was compelled to wage, deserted her and joined her enemies. Let them be, like Arnold, forever accursed. We have seen our soldiers fall, our cities in flames, our citizens torn from peaceful homes. We looked upon it unmoved and unflinched. But we can bear it no longer. We will now, at all hazards, recover our lost liberties and restore the State. We are in the midst of a great revolution, which may end peacefully at the ballot-box; but if not, then the true men of the south will rally once more under their now folded banner, and will try the issue at the cartridge-box. (Loud and enthusiastic applause.) Remember the ancestors from whom you sprung. There are men in the north who are now truly with you, and who will in such a conflict, if necessary, lead your battalions. We did not make the other war, it was forced upon us. We simply stood for the rights for which our forefathers bled; and we will stand there again, come peace or war!"

Robert Toombs, of the same State, says:

"The reconstruction acts are null and void, and shall not stand. The grinning skeletons which have been set up in our midst as legislators shall be booted by Frank Blair, whom our party has expressly appointed for that purpose. All these things shall be swept away from the bosom of the country. * * * It is needless to tell them (Republicans) that there is but one great principle of justice which should rule, and that resistance to tyrants is obedience to God."

The Petersburg, Va., Index says:

"Should deliverance from Radical rule fail to come, there are millions in the south to whom life will become so worthless that they would gladly throw it away to be avenged on their adversary."

Howell Cobb says:

"I want to express it and urge it upon you, until there shall exist in the heart and soul of every son and daughter that walks and breathes her pure air and lives upon her happy soil this conviction, that these men of the north, these Chicago men, these men who called upon you to vote for Grant and Colfax, and that Grant and Colfax, who have indorsed these things are neither worthy of your vote, your respect or of your confidence, much less of your kindness and hospitality. My friends, they are your enemies. I state this [illegible]. Enemies they were in war, and enemies they continue to be in peace. If you withdraw the sword and bade them defiance; if [illegible] we gather up the remnant of the south, and raising the banner of constitutional equality, and gathering around it the good men of the north as well as the south, we hurl into their teeth to-day the same defiance and bid them come on to the struggle. We are ready for it if you are."

The Louisville Journal says:

"The white Radicals will be spotted, and will not escape. If we have to die for it we will get even with them. They have brought ruin upon us. They have prostituted us. They are hunting us down daily. Now if they push us to the wall, and force us to fight in self defence, we mean to put our first bullet into their own wicked hearts."

A Texas Journal says:

"The result of the war settled one point and no more. It settled and conclusively established the fact that eleven southern States could be whipped by twenty-three northern and western States."

General Battle, of Mobile, says:

"Comrades, brothers, year after year you bore the confederate flag through fire and tempest, and upon more than two hundred battle-fields covered it with glory. The fortitude of the south in the midst of her desolation has attracted the admiration of the world, and now the Democratic party of the Union throws over her a banner, inscribed with the principles of constitutional liberty, for which we fought. The Democratic party indorses the principles for which you battled."

The Richmond Dispatch says:

"These are, indeed, revolutionary times, and call for revolutionary heroes—men of nerve, backbone and physical courage. Whoever hopes to deceive the northern people, and make them believe that it is only an ordinary Presidential election, pays but a poor compliment to its powers of perception, and makes himself unfit to be a leader of any party. There was evidently a faction of the Democratic party at the north which hoped to do this thing, but Blair's letter has rendered it impossible for them to deceive themselves much longer. They will wake up and trim their lamps soon."

The Petersburg (Va.) Express says:

"Under our laws Virginia has a right to vote in the next Presidential election. Traitors would deny us that right, and accompany that denial with threats. Virginians are not to be frightened. Virginia has an unquestionable right to vote, and Virginia will vote. We owe it to ourselves, to truth, to the national Democracy. The law is clear. Virginia must vote. To the counting of our votes the national Democracy stands solemnly pledged. Let us do our duty and vote. Let us leave to the people of the north their duty—counting our vote."

Perhaps we have supplied evidence enough. If not, the unconvinced can be furnished with any desired quantity of the same sort. If they will accept lesser luminaries the language can be made far more emphatic.

Now, says Governor Seymour, "the late rebels have submitted to the results of the war. They are turning swords into plowshares, and taking care of their families." The whole party cry out for compassion on these penitent traitors. But have they submitted? Does the language we have cited sound submissive? It seems to us that the fact of submission is the very one at issue, and that the weight of the expressions we have quoted is diametrically opposed to any idea of submission. They ask for "bullets in the wicked hearts" of loyal men, and threaten to put them there. They denounce all that has been done to and for them, and look forward to the time when, under Seymour's Presidency, they will be able to tear down what we have erected. The whole canvass establishes the living force of the rebellion and its malignant spirit. This treason is not now in arms, as it was when Lincoln was last elected, but it is alert, and expressly states that it only awaits a Democratic success to break into life.

Now the evidence here, cumulative to so much of like tenor previously published in our columns, ought to satisfy every one that the political campaign opened really includes a military struggle and another rebellion, if it is won by the copperheads. The most prominent papers, the leading men of the southern wing, say so. As they speak under the chidings of northern brethern, it is not to be supposed that they unbosom themselves so freely as they would like to do. Their rancor is swallowed for a time from necessity. Still it shows its existence, and we know what it can do in an overflow. We know the only means for preventing this. Radicals and northern conservatives are working shoulder to shoulder to prevent the great danger; and not only to prevent this, but also to forward positive good, of which the country stands in such great need. But the urgency is great; the danger is imminent. If our grasp slips at the moment when we are stepping from the topmost rung to the height, the fall will certainly be bad, and may be dangerous. The country cannot afford to run any risk now. The one and only plan for safety consists in united and vigorous action for the election of Grant. If this is secured, all the threats and plots that are now hazarding another period of difficulty will be exploded, and national safety, and peace, and individual prosperity, and the pacification of the whole country in a durable manner be made certain. Any other means must, from the condition of things fail. We accordingly urge all to take a personal interest in the canvass proportioned to its hazards, and not to desist from downright work until November assures us that all is and will continue to be well, and that present good is increased by prospective additions. There are but a few days to work in. Clubs and committees are doing nobly, but they should only be reckoned as aids to and never as substitutes for the most diligent personal work. Give us this for eight weeks more, and then a different tone will come from the south, and a different sentiment will be felt in the north, and we shall not for a very long time be compelled to consider what is necessary for preservation.—Philadelphia North American.

THE SOUTH.

Murder of Union Men by the Ku Klux Klan.

The Memphis Post prints the following:

"Democrats have now in the South two organizations; the one open, the other secret; the one legitimate, the other with the sole purpose of fostering treason and perpetrating illegal outrages. It is not the secrecy of this latter Democratic organization which makes it detestable; it is the fact that this is the first association known to have been formed in this country for the sole purpose of perpetrating at midnight hours, and in safety, outrages upon political opponents. Democratic leaders either wink at its outrages or pretend to doubt its existence, or commend it as controlled by discreet and excellent men.

"Within a short time these masked Democrats in the State of Tennessee have beaten many white and hundreds of black men; they have committed numberless robberies of arms and money; they whipped, unmercifully, a woman at Versailles, Rutherford Co., because they suspected that she told who some of them were; they outraged a white man at Humboldt, Gibson county, and at the same place whipped a negro so that he died two days afterwards from the effects; and they searched the Memphis and Louisville train for a Memphian whom they intended to murder, but whom, luckily, they could not find; in Lincoln county they took from his bed and outraged one of its best citizens, a Senator of the State; they have lynched two men in M'Kinzie; they have burned school houses in Rutherford and Wilson counties; they have forced State Representatives when going to Nashville, to travel a long distance out of their way to escape assassination; they murdered Mr. Francis, and whipped Mr. Winton almost to death, in Overton county; they threatened death to those who dared to carry a Union flag in Lawrenceburg; they strewed briers over the graves of Union soldiers in Madison county; they murdered Mr. Bierfield and his porter at Franklin; they cheered when at Memphis and Brownsville Forrest threatened to kill all white radicals; they have driven hundreds of industrious colored men out of Maury, Giles and adjacent counties; and they have a reign of terror in Obion, Weakly, Lincoln and other counties."

The Frankfort (Kentucky) Commonwealth adds to this formidable list of outrages the following:

"Will the Courier of Louisville dare to deny that an armed, drilled and officered organization, calling themselves the 'Regulators,' has existed for a year in the counties of Marion, Boyle, Mercer, Lincoln, Anderson, and others, and the victims of their midnight work have been composed almost wholly of Union men? Every man punished by them in the last six months has been a Union man. If it does, it so states in the face of what it knows to be true. A gentleman passed through this city last week, on his way out of the State, because the Rebels of Anderson county had threatened him with violence for daring to maintain publicly and freely, his preference for the candidates of the Union party.

"Another Union citizen of the same county, a man of property and respectability, has been ordered to leave on the simple suspicion that he informed the lawful authorities of crimes perpetrated by a band of Ku Klux on a number of peaceable negroes. He will leave as soon as he disposes of his property. A letter received from a general of the Union army, now resident in Southern Kentucky, informs us that the Ku Klux have given warnings and erected gallows in the vicinity of the residences of Union men in his section."

The Little Rock (Ark.) correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat details the Rebel Democracy's outrages in Arkansas:

"Week before last Mr. Wheeler, State Senator from White county, left Searcy in a buggy for West Point, expecting there to meet a hack which would take him to a point on White river, miles beyond where he was, to take a boat, being on his way to this place. He arrived too late for the hack, and hired one Hicks to accompany him to drive the mule in the buggy. Three or four miles from West Point they came upon two men on horseback, with pistols cocked, in waiting for them. They were ordered out of the buggy. Senator Wheeler was made to give up his money and two gold watches, and then to take off his coat and waistcoat, which both were ordered off in a direction indicated by the assassins. Wheeler ran for the woods, a hundred yards distant. Both men started after him still mounted, and commenced firing. His coat, hat and valise were found, and report was sent to this place the next day that he was killed. That evening a dispatch was received here from him at Duvall's Bluff, where he had just arrived. The men who attempted to kill him were both known to him; one a resident of the county, by the name of Lewis, a brother-in-law of the rebel General M'Cray; the other a desperado by the name of Hill, having lately come into the county from the Southern part of the State, from which place he had been compelled to flee for murder.

"That night, after the attempted assassination, the two outlaws went to West Point. Their friends collected, and they had a time of general merriment, healths being drank to the man who wasted his powder. On the same day a dispatch was received from Memphis that Senator Barber, of Crittenden county, had been shot through a window with buck shot, three taking effect in the head, and one in the arm. The simultaneous attempt to assassinate members of the Legislature in parts of the State widely separated, with the undeniable evidences of a general understanding among the assassins in White county, coupled with the advice of the Gazette, and the threats of leading Rebels, alias, Democrats, in various parts of the state, are sufficient to convince the writer that assassination is a part of the programme for the fall campaign, and that the leaders of the Democracy in this part of the State are responsible for it."

The Howe Sewing Machines
ARE THE
OLDEST ESTABLISHED
OF ANY IN THE WORLD!
THEY BEING THE FIRST SEWING MACHINES ever made, and have been manufactured continually under the supervision of the original inventor,
Elias Howe, jr.,
Since their first introduction 1845. The improvements upon these machines made within the last two years and their rapidly growing popularity attests the fact that they have reached the very acme of perfection, and that they are not only the oldest established but the best in the world.
These machines do perfect work upon all fabrics whether fine or coarse, making a stitch; also, the invention of Mr. Howe alike upon both of the fabric, Sewed. The tensions, new, novel and unvarying, can be adjusted to any degree of tightness, and after being adjusted do not require changing, except for different threads.
To those who have used the Howe Machine, it is not necessary for us to speak; and we would only add to others who wish a perfect machine to be sure and see these machines before buying any other. Send for circular. Applications for agencies must be addressed to

INDUSTRY, BEAVER CO., PA.,
September 5th, 1868.

Editor of The Beaver Argus:

The report in circulation throughout the county that I intended to vote for Seymour and Blair is untrue. Myself and family are for Grant and Colfax all the time.

JOHN ABER.

"Not Fit to Vote."—That the soldiers of the [illegible] were not, in the opinion of Horatio Seymour, fit to vote, is proved by his veto of the act of the New York Legislature which provided for their ballots being taken in camp and field. His veto bears date April 24th, 1863. The soldiers of Pennsylvania will certainly resent this insult to their comrades of the Empire State.

Darlington Wide-Awakes.—The Republicans of Darlington and vicinity are at work, and will do good service. While out there on last Thursday night, we saw that they had organized a fine company of wide-awakes, made up of the most respectable and active men of that locality. We hope they will make it suit to visit this "neck of woods" sometime during the campaign.

The Republicans of Raccoon township are good workers. They have their party well organized, and will have very nearly if not their whole vote out. They held a meeting at Smith's school house on last Friday evening, which was well attended. A good glee club meets with their Grant and Colfax club every week and furnishes the people with some excellent campaign songs. Raccoon will do her duty not only at the November election, but also on the second Tuesday of October.

Grant and Colfax Pole Raising.—On Tuesday evening of last week Mr. Richard Brown, of this place raised a Grant and Colfax pole, measuring over 100 feet in hight. A beautiful flag floats from it.—Quite a crowd of people were in attendance when the pole was raised. After it was up and the work all completed, they gave three cheers for Mr. Brown, three for the flag, three for Grant and Colfax and three for Master Henry Weyand for climbing the pole after it was up and unloosing the ropes used in its erection.

New Directory—By Joseph Wiggins.—Mr. Joseph Wiggins of Pittsburgh, Pa., is compiling a Directory for the Beaver, Mahoning & Shenango Valley Rail Road: a work that is to contain the names and residences of all the inhabitants of the different towns situated on the line of the road. It will also contain a statistical exhibit of the manufacturing and coller companies, with a historical sketch of the early settlement of the towns, and other information of value. This work we would recommend to the patronage of the County. We trust that Mr. Wiggins will receive the support and patronage that he deserves in the enterprise.

The work will be completed and ready for delivery in November. The subscription price is only $3.00.—Those who have not yet subscribed, and wish to do so can send their orders to the Publisher. Address

Lock Box 24, Allegheny City.

Beaver and Beaver Seminary.

This town, noted for its situation, is about an hour's ride from our city, and is one of the most eminently located for private residence of any of our suburban villages. The plateau upon which it stands is elevated about one hundred feet above the level of the Ohio, and by the gravelly and sandy character of the soil, is thoroughly drained, and is always dry and healthy. Above this plateau, on every side rises hills, quietly sloping to the hight of some two hundred feet, forming an outline of landscape of unsurpassed loveliness and beauty. The writer has heard those who have traveled extensively declare that the natural scenery around this town fully equals that of any in their travels. Then, there is a sense of quiet repose which comes over one on entering this place, with its avenues an hundred feet in width, that must be really delightful to one who can call it home.

Several parties doing business in our cities have recently secured themselves a resting place in this pleasant town.

From its beauty, retirement, and yet accessibility—being quite near the junction of the Cleveland and Chicago railroads—it has been spoken of for many years as an admirable situation for a school of high grade, and the success that has attended the Beaver Seminary, under the fostering care of the Pittsburgh Conference, has fully justified the foresight of its founders and early friends, among whom may be named Bishop Simpson and the lamented Dr. Barker.

Those who have been familiar with the seminary building in the past would scarcely recognize the plain, flat-roofed, unornamented building in the present finished, tasteful structure. During the vacation a slate roof, with front gable, cornice and brackets, has been placed upon the building, transforming it into one of fine proportions and of achitectural beauty. Beaver need not now blush to compare school buildings with any institution. The interior is being painted, papered, and refitted generally, so that with its attractive grounds and fine promenades, free from the dust, smoke, and confusion of the city, it is a very inviting spot in which to place a daughter for obtaining an education, especially when she can be left under the care of persons so well fitted for the position as are Professor Taylor and his excellent lady. They succeed in making their school what one of that size should be—a real home family engaged in one common pursuit.

The faculty in the Literary Department, with Prof. Taylor at its head, is ample, and we believe unsurpassed in qualifications or experience. The courses are as extensive as in any Female College in the State.

The Music Department has for several years been a source of great attraction at this place. Ladies frequently devote themselves entirely to music, and at its last Commencement several graduated in its musical course.

The Painting Department is under a lady eminently qualified for her position, having been for years a pupil of one of Pittsburgh's most devoted artists, Mr. Alfred Wall.

This school has always had the confidence and support of very many of the most careful and thoughtful members of our own and other churches, and for the last two years a daughter of our much esteemed Bishop Kingsley has been a member of it. The Bishop was present at its late Commencement, and expressed himself greatly pleased with the condition and conduct of the school. The prospects for the boarding department are very good, and there should be no delay in writing to Prof. Taylor, as the next session opens September 8.—Pitts. Christian Advocate.

Agricultural.—Board of Managers met at the Sheriff's office pursuant to adjournment, on the 5th day of Sept., 1868.

The following resolutions were passed and Committees appointed:

W. A. Laird and J. C. Wilson to rent the Eating House and Stands on the Fair Grounds. Nicholas Todd, appointed as Captain of Police to keep order on Fair Grounds. H. Anderson and W. A. Laird oppointed to go to Economy for flowers, and present the Economy Society 20 complimentary family tickets.—On motion the fee for entry at stock gate be 25 cents for single horse and 40 cents for pair of horses.

On motion a premium of $200,00 awarded to the fastest trotter best 3 in 5, go as they please, not less than three entries to make the race. Time, 3 minutes confined to the County. Also a premium of $100 be awarded to the fastest pacer, best 3 in five, go as they please, not less than three entries to make the race, Time, 3 minutes, confined to the County.

On motion proposals will be received up to the 25th of September from the several Brass Bands for music at the Fair, the cheapest and best to be employed by the society for 2 days' service, proposals to be received by J. R. Harrah, Secretary. On motion a premium of $10 be paid for the slowest mare, horse, mule or ass, to come off on the last day of the Fair, not less than 5 entries to make the race. Ten per cent. will be charged on each entry.

Grant Club Organized.—At a meeting of Republicans of Darlington, Pa., held at Darlington on Tuesday night, 1st Sept., 1868, for the purpose of organizing a Grant and Colfax club. The meeting was called to order by electing Dr. W. C. Shurlock Chairman and Dr. N. D. Cone, Secretary. The constitution and by-laws of the Grant and Colfax club was then read, and signatures requested for membership whereupon 40 names were signed. The meeting then proceeded to organize the club by the election of the following officers: President, Dr. W. C. Shurlock;—Vice-Presidents, John C. Heart and A. J. Welsh; Treasurer, J. A. Anderson; Secretary, Dr. N. D. Cone; Corresponding Secretary, S. M. Elder. On motion the Chair proceeded to appoint the following committees: On finance, John Grim, Dr. N. D. Cone and Jos. Anderson. On canvassing, S. G. Caughey, R. G. Cook, A. M. Mecklan, J. P. Martin, Geo. Gout, R. A. Cochrane and John Kerr. It was moved and carried that the membership fee be 50 cents. It was moved and carried that the club be known as the Darlington Grant and Colfax Club. On motion Tuesday night of each week was made the time for the regular meetings of this club. On motion the club adjourned to meet at 6 o'clock P. M.

N. D. CONE,
Darlington, Sept. 3d. Secretary.

Editor of The Beaver Argus:

A correspondent of the Local inquires "what rent the Radical Club pays for the School Hall where they hold their meetings," and Odell thinks the query is eminently proper.

For their information permit me to say that the School Hall is intended for the use of citizens of the Boro., for holding meetings of a religious, scientific, political or educational character, free of charge.

But when itinerant lecturers, monkey showmen or mountebanks of any description who hold forth for money come along they are required to pay rent to the proper authorities.

Now if Odell and his querist desire to exhibit themselves by lamp light, at twenty-five cents admission, I have no doubt they would draw a full house, but they would come under the latter class above named and would be required to pay about five dollars per night. We hope this information will be satisfactory.

ROCHESTER.

A Vote taken in Libby Prison in 1863.—We are indebted to Capt. George W. Simpson, late of the 67th Pa. Vols., for the returns of an election held in Libby Prison on the 13th of October, 1863. The polls were opened for Pennsylvania and Ohio officers, and the candidates were Curtin and Woodward for Pennsylvania, and Brough and Vallandigham for Ohio. Capt. Simpson was one of the officers of the election and reports the following as the result:

PENNSYLVANIA.

For Curtin (Union)........95
For Woodward (Copperhead)........18
Scattering........1

OHIO.

For Brough (Union)........160
For Vallandigham (Copperhead)........0
Scattering........1

The soldiers have not changed in their political views, and will vote with even greater unanimity for their great Leader and Captain, ULYSSES S. GRANT.—Har. Tel.

The Republicans of South Beaver Tp., held a meeting on last Friday evening at Court's School House. Capt. Eberhart was the speaker. A good crowd was in attendance, and the best of feeling prevailed.

The copes of Raccoon Tp., held a meeting at Green Garden on last Thursday evening for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair club. Capt. Smith, late an officer of the rebel army, presided.—Frank Wilson, Esq., of this place, was the speaker.—After he had finished, an opportunity was given to those present to come forward and append their names to the roll. Only three persons could be induced to go into the Seymour & Blair business, notwithstanding the fact, that, some 20 or 25 Democrats were present at the time.

THE PRESIDENCY.

A GRANT and Colfax Club was organized at Millville, N. J., last week.

Ten thousand Grant men listened to Gov. Tod at Orwell, Ohio, on the 29th.

The Germans of Council Bluffs, Iowa, have organized a Wide-Awake Tanner's Club.

A meeting of the Republican State Central Committee of Maryland was held at Baltimore on Friday last.

MONTGOMERY BLAIR is addressing the Rebel element of Virginia. He is taking back all his old doubts about "the Southern rights being sought in the Union."

EDWIN FORREST says that in the event of another contest he will need no powder or blacks while he can find a white Radical to powder it on. He will need several kegs to treat the crowd in November.

THE Republicans of Michigan are hard at work, and promise at least 30,000 majority. The Hon. Austin Blair addressed a meeting numbering over 20,000 at Jackson, on the 24th.

WM. H. SHRIVER of Virginia, who suffered for months in Southern prisons, has addressed the voters of his township, calling on them to support Grant, and not give the Rebels another chance to torture Union soldiers.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the 30th has the following graphic announcement: "The entire Johnson party in this county has gone over to Grant and Colfax; and the organ of the party, The National Union defines its position as a Republican sheet. The last gentleman heard from is Mr. Thomas Spooner, who is authoritatively announced as a Grant man."

THE President of the New-York Hebrew Grant and Colfax Club writes to Washington:

We have now over 100 members, and on Sunday numbers called on me to have their names enrolled.—The work goes bravely on. As Jews, we have no affinity with traitors and smugglers, and, with the help of the God of Israel, we will let our countrymen know it in a tangible form.

THE Grant Club of Winsted, Conn., the first Grant Club organized in the United States, held a rousing meeting on Saturday evening at Camp's Hall. Stirring addresses were made by Capt. Eugene O'Shea and the Hon. Wm. K. Peck of Winsted. Litchfield County is arousing. Mr. Peck soon takes the stump in this State. He is one of the ablest speakers of New-England.

THE Democrats of Boston have made a bid for Mr. J. K. Dames, Esq., of that city. In his reply he says: "A Republican by birth, a Republican by education, a Republican by principle, I do not now, at this crisis in our nation's history, and on the eve of a great political victory, propose to desert the banner I have so often followed to victory. A Republican I have been; a Republican I intend to remain."

SOME of the late converts to Grant and Colfax we enumerate: Col. Mitcalf of Providence, R. I., a leading, talented and lifelong Democrat; M. P. Gaddis Josiah Kirby and Isaac J. Neal, who were instrumental in securing the election of Gen. Sam. Carey to Congress from Cincinnati; Major J. W. Gordon, long a prominent Democratic lawyer of Indianapolis; Edgar Hill, an able young lawyer of Fort Edward, N. Y., Henry D. Tallman and S. D. Clay of Bath, Me., the Hon. John Hall of Mason County, W. Va., who was a delegate to the New-York Democratic Convention.

THE Democracy of New-Jersey have nominated a Know-Nothing for Governor, a Know-Nothing for Congress in the IIId District, and another for Congress in the Vth District. But they mean to try and make things even, they tell us, by nominating a Roman Catholic Irishman for Congress in the Vth District.—In the IId District they will, of course, renominate Charley Haight, a pure and simple Copperhead, but in the Ist District they will no doubt go in for another Know-Nothing, if they can find one willing to be overwhelmed by a majority of 3,500. How much they need Jack Rogers to marshall their benighted hosts.

ISN'T this so, comrades?

Give me your hand, General Grant:
You're a man!
You were not the coward to say "I can't!"
Nor the boaster to say "I can!"
But you went to work with a will and won
To prove that the thing could be done.
Oh! God was kind and Heaven was true
When it gave us a man like U-
-lysses Grant,
When it gave us a man like you!
We honor you, General Grant!
You have made
The hearts of the nation with joy to pant
That were lying cold in the shade!
And they bless you ever for what you've done—
For the glorious victory won—
And pray that kind Heaven may grant a few
More such brave-hearted men as U-
-lysses Grant,
More such brave-hearted men as you!

A GRANT and Colfax pole, 115 feet in hight, has been raised in Blairsville, Ind. The boys there are giving the "Johnnies" a lively shaking.

The Boston Advertiser intimates the probability of Gen. Wilson being a member of the new Cabinet, if Gen. Grant is elected President.

THE Republicans of Morrisania, Melrose, Mott Haven, and North New-York are to assemble at Melrose on Thursday evening next. Several gentlemen of ability are to speak.

ON the 27th ult., a vote on the Utica and Black River Railroad stood 61 for Grant and 22 for Seymour. On the same day a vote on the Central road gave Grant 104 and Seymour 59. Mr. D. Scrafford of West Troy furnishes this statement.

A LARGE and enthusiastic meeting was held in New-Haven last night, when a Grant and Colfax flag was raised amid great applause and a fine display of fireworks. Speeches were made by Dexter R. Wright, N. D. Sperry, H. B. Harbour, Dr. Logan, and Col. Needham of Massachusetts.

The Indianapolis Journal says the late Johnson party of Indiana preceded their Cincinnati friends.—It knows of but one man of any prominence who Johnsonized in the State, who is not now for Grant and Colfax. The exception is Judge Gooding. Another war is not popular with Johnson's friends in Indiana.

AN immense Grant and Colfax mass meeting was held at Eagle Station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, 17 miles from Philadelphia, on Monday afternoon and evening. There was great enthusiasm throughout. In the evening the Invincible Republican Club of Philadelphia turned out in a torch-light procession.

MR. JOHN P. TERRY, the popular landlord of the "Long Island House" in Riverhead, L. I., lately put up across the main street in front of his hotel a unique and tasty banner on which was inscribed: "We will fight it out on this line," it being unmolested and much admired by all Grant men until Saturday night last, when the Rebels, unable any longer to endure it, cut it down and carried it off.

THE great Republican Council to be held at Indianapolis to-day is the only topic of conversation in Indiana. It is conceded on all hands that it will be the greatest demonstration ever held in this State. Gen. O. Brown, Gen. Lew. Wallace, and Gen. W. T. Sperry have been elected Marshals for the right, center, and left wings of the procession. It is expected that there will be at least 15,000 torches in the procession.

A GRANT AND COLFAX Campaign Club, No. 2 of the series, was organized on the 31st, in Albany, by Prof. George Batchelor, acting under instructions from the Union Republican State Committee. Our French Republican friends are displaying a remarkable enthusiasm, and preparing everywhere to give a good account of themselves. This meeting was the largest political gathering in which the French residents of Albany have taken part.

AN immense Republican rally was held at Maryville, Mo., on the 22d ult. There was a grand "Ship of State," carrying the Goddess of Liberty and 37 ladies representing the different States, beside several wagons from the different townships of Nodaway County carrying a like load of human freight, all decked in gorgeous array, the Savannah Cornet Band, the Maryville Band, Capt. Caldwell's artillery, horsemen, wagons, and other specialities in the procession, which was five miles in length.

A GLORIOUS Grant and Colfax meeting was held at at Hartford, Vt., on Saturday, the 29th inst. A beautiful new flag bearing the names of our standard-bearers, was given to the house with great enthusiasm.—The spacious Congregational church was filled to overflowing. Stirring addresses were made by Senator Morris, Gen. Washburn, and others. All the States were represented by a bevy of young ladies, appropriately dressed, such as only the Green hills of Vermont can furnish. The proceedings were enlivened by a band of music. The meeting dispersed amid cheers for Grant, Colfax, and the flag.

SATURDAY was a glorious day for the Republicans of Plymouth, Marshall County, Ind. There was an immense gathering of people—the greatest outpouring of the season; more than ten times as many as were at the Senator Dolittle Democratic meeting.—Bands from Bourbon, Plymouth, and other parts of the county; a procession miles in length; three companies of fighting Boys in Blue, and companies of Tanners; 38 beautiful and finely dressed young ladies representing the States, in a handsomely decorated wagon; cannon, hundreds of footmen, horsemen, carriages, and wagons—these, a few of the attractions of the day.

THE Synod of the Presbyterian Church of [illegible] will meet, according to adjournment, in the Presbyterian Church of [illegible] on [illegible] September [illegible], at 7 o'clock, and will [illegible] the following Sabbath with that congregation in the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

The Synod will be opened with a sermon by the Rev. C. C. Riggs, D. D. the retiring moderator.

The citizens of the community are kindly requested to aid in the entertainment of the members. All who can do so will be waited upon by the following committee from said churches: Hugh C. McCullough, Esq., Dr. D. S. Marquis, Henry Hice, Esq., Dr. A. V. Adams.

[illegible] of the largest and most enthusiastic Republican meetings ever held in Moon tp., was held at Bunker Hill School House on Monday evening, Sept. 7th. Rev. Alex. H. Calvert presided. J. F. Dravo and J. S. Rutan were the speakers. It was resolved to hold another meeting at Vanlear's School House on Friday evening, Sept. 18th, and the same speakers were, on motion, requested to be present and address the meeting. A large number of Republicans were at the meeting from Hopewell township.

Postponed.—The laying of the corner stone of the German Evangelical Lutheran St. Paul's church of Rochester, has been postponed until Sunday afternoon at 2 P. M. Sept. 20th. All friends of christianity are cordially invited to be present on the occasion.

Republican Meeting at Industry.—We are requested to state that the Republicans of Industry township and vicinity, will hold a meeting in Industry on the evening of September 17th. Prominent speakers from abroad will be present to address the meeting. The public are earnestly urged to attend.

The proceedings of the Hopewell tp. Grant & Colfax Club were handed in too late for publication this week. They will appear next week.

We ask the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Howe Sewing Machine in this week's paper. The Howe Machine justly stands in the front rank of Sewing Machines, its inventor whose name it bears, was the first man to create this wonderful labor saving instrument, and the name of Howe, should be reverenced and honored by every woman of this or any land. Where Sewing Machies are in use since the first machine invented by Mr. Howe. There has been many under different names offered to the public, but we believe that the present Howe Machine with the new improvements, stands to-day, (as it formerly did,) the best Sewing Machine in the market, and we would advise our lady friends who intend to purchase of these truly, "ladies friend," that they examine this one before making their purchases, when in the city of Pittsburgh. Call and see them at No. 4 St. Clair St., Pittsburgh.

HOUSEWIVES TAKE NOTICE.

We call the attention of readers to the advertisement of J. & H. Beggs & Co. in another column of our paper. They have on hand a large stock of Fruit Jars of all the most celebrated manufacturers in the market.—Also, a large variety of Jelly Glasses, Fruit Cans, Sealing Wax, &c., and everything necessary for putting up fruit. While their stock of house furnishing goods is full and complete, embracing every article usually kept in such houses. Their stock of Queensware is quite large, and they are offering bargains in that line of goods to persons wishing to purchase. We would advise them to call on Messrs J. & H. Beggs & Co., No. 124, Federal Street, Allegheny city, Pa.

ATTENTION COMRADES!—There will be a meeting of the members of Post 113, G. A. R. Rochester Pa. on Thursday evening, Sept. 10th. Every member is urged to be present on the occasion, as business of importance is to be transacted. By order of

G. AVERILL PENDLETON P. C.
J. S. ANDERSON P. A.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.

LIME, LIME, Try it. LIME, Try it.

GET YOUR LIME FROM THE NEW

"MONITOR LIME KILN."

One trial will convince any one that it is the best LIME ever burned in this vicinity, is at least 20 per cent better than Lime burned the old way, and will be sold at the same price. Come and see it and try some of it before making contracts, and save

TIME AND MONEY.

The coal is not mixed with the stone to burn it, so that it is entirely free from cinders and ashes, and we burn nothing but the best stone. Brick layers need not run it off or sift it to make their morter, for they get nothing but lime, as we draw every four hours; you can always get it

FRESH.

LIME delivered promptly whenever ordered by wagon load, car load, or in the barrel.

Send orders to W. J. Dunn, Beaver, P. O., or to the "Mulvanon Lime Kiln's," Vanport, Beaver county.

Scouring, Drying and Pressing

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS TAKEN OUT PATents for Scouring, Drying and Pressing clothing, which for excellence of workmanship and speed, exceed anything now in use. Clothing cleansed to order in first class style. Work will be taken in at my place of business in Bridgewater, at all times, and renovated with but little delay to the owner.

I am still Agent for Howe's latest improved Sewing Machines, and also Singer's, both of which are growing more and more in favor, the longer they are used.

To the Public.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING SEEN the PRIZE CHURN, patented July 31, 1866, and Oct. 8, 1867, by the Prize Churn Company, Springfield, Vermont, and being satisfied that it does its work well, making good nice butter in from 2 to 8 minutes, we recommend it to all as the best Churn in market, to our knowledge.

GEO. W. HAMILTON,
D. McKINNEY, Jr.,
J. WEYAND,
M. WEYAND.

Beaver, Aug. 3, 1868.

MR. CUNDALL churned for me this morning with his prize churn, he used no hot water or other unusual means of hastening the butter. In three minutes the butter began coming and in about five was ready to take out. Most patent churns are objectionable because so complicated that it requires more time to wash them than it does to churn the butter. This one can be cleaned in less time than the old fashioned dash churn. I regard it as a great improvement, and calculated to save woman much labor.

All orders thankfully received and promptly filled.

We Call Attention to the Following Statements

While living in the East I used several of the most Celebrated Cooking Stoves made in that part of the country, and on my arrival here, I was recommended to purchase the Crystal Palace Stove, (also invented by Mr. Anderson) as being the best. I did so, and used it with good satisfaction. When I saw Mr. Anderson's new Stove, I was attracted by its neat appearance, and on examining its Oven and interior arrangements, found it possessed many advantages over all I had seen. I purchased, and have one now in use. We consider it superior to any we have ever used. It is all the inventor claims, and we think, all that could be desired in a Cooking Stove.

CAPT. GILBERT PENDLETON.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 21st.

Having one of Mr. Anderson's new Stoves in use, I can fully endorse Capt. Pendleton's statement. JOHN H. WHISLER.

Having one of Anderson's new Stoves in use, I can fully endorse the above recommendation. J. WOODRUFF.

Having one of Mr. Anderson's new Stoves in use, we are fully satisfied with its good qualities in all respects. JOSEPH IRVIN AND WIFE.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 25th.

Having kept house for a long time, and used a great number of Cook Stoves of different patterns and styles, I consider J. J. Anderson's new Stove, in point of economy in fuel, ready cooking and baking for its size, superior to any we have used, and cheerfully recommend it, believing it will render entire satisfaction. CHAS. LUKINS.

We have one of Mr. J. J. Anderson's new Stoves, manufactured at the Rochester Foundry and having given it a fair trial, we find it comes fully up to all that has been claimed for it. It heats very rapidly, takes but little fuel, and is a most excellent baker. Mr. Anderson may congratulate himself on having achieved quite a triumph in the line of Cooking Stoves.

Very respectfully,

Beaver, Nov. 23d, 1867. J. S. BRACKEN.

COOKING STOVES.
HEATING STOVES
GRATE FRONTS and

Ruby Cooking Stove Nos. 7, 8 & 9.

THIS STOVE TOOK THE FIRST PREMIUM AT the State Fair as a Coal Cooking Stove, and also at the late County Fair. We use no scrap iron in their manufacture, but make them exclusively of No. 1 Pig Metal, and warrant them in every respect.

The Ruby has the largest oven in the market and consumes but little fuel in baking, owing to to our improved Grate.

GRATE FRONTS AND FENDERS.

We are largely engaged in the manufacture of Grate Fronts and Fenders, which we enamel in an oven common, second quality and fine finish. This enamel retains its lustre for a long time, will not burn off, and makes a much superior finish to that of Coal Tar.

SUMMER PIECES.

We are also making Sheet Iron Summer Pieces (for which we have applied for a patent) pressed up in a Hydraulic press. They are much lighter than cast Iron, and much cheaper.

HEATING STOVES.

We claim the heaviest heating Stove in the market for the size, and use the best Stock in their construction.

Our patterns are not yet complete, but it is our intention to keep a general assortment in our line.

We also took the Premium at the County Fair for Castings generally, and we have entered in to the business with the determination to use the best of Pig Metal and make good work.

We respectfully request a share of the public patronage, and would be pleased, to see those wanting anything in our line at our woks.

Prices Low to suit the times.
